WHAT TO BRING TO CAMP

• Necessary forms for registration
• Modest clothing and shoes suitable for hot outdoor weather, lots of walking, and air-conditioned classrooms. Tee shirts must reflect good taste and shorts are acceptable.
• Extra cash for incidental expenses and lunch.
• Bed linens. Sheets need to fit a twin-sized bed. Don’t forget a pillow, comforter and any other bed making for a comfortable stay.
• Towels, washcloths, soap and shampoo, toiletries, sunscreen, shower slippers, hangers, and alarm clock.
• Swimwear and towels. Use conservative taste when selecting swimwear. Campers wearing inappropriate suits will be asked to change into clothing and not permitted to swim.
• Umbrella
• Things to do in “down time” at dorm: Board games, cards, guitar, book, etc.
• All-weather jacket or sweatshirt. Classrooms can get quite cool in the summer.
• Backpack to carry music, pencils, sweatshirt, water, etc.
• Clothing for recital performances:
  ◦ SMI requires nice “church” clothes that are appropriate for at least two performances
